City's Fiscal Year Ended With Money Left In The Budget

$7,689 More Revenue Received In General Fund Than Anticipated

The budget report of the City of Belle Glade for the fiscal year ended September 30 reveals that some $32,000 remained in the budget unexpended for the period. The budget report also shows that $7,689 more than was anticipated was received in the city's general revenue fund. This fund includes all monies received by the city with the exception of revenue from the municipally owned water plant.

The city's 1953-54 budget estimated revenue of $325,000 for the general fund and $101,600 revenue from the water plant for a total of $426,600. The water department is a separate operation and funds received from that source is used for the retirement of bonds which were issued for the expansion of the water works.

Of the money unexpended from last year the majority is in the improvement fund where it appears excessive amounts were budgeted for tires, trucks and other supplies in the street and fire departments and the full amount has not been needed. An appropriation for improvements to the labor loading zone in the city facility, was not used in its entirety, but the improvements are now being made.

The city manager type of government was revived in Belle Glade last January with City Manager Tom Cagle assuming his duties on January 15. On March 1st, at the half-way mark in the fiscal year, a budget revision was initiated and a more efficient operation apparently has resulted.

The water department appears in excellent, healthy financial condition with more than enough funds on deposit to retire maturing bonds. About $1900 monthly is set aside for this purpose.

In the past it has been necessary for the city manager to make money for operating purposes early in the fiscal year when the previous budget had been expended. Taxes do not become due until November 1st and are not delinquent until April 1st, thereby making the city's income during the first months of the fiscal year, which commences October 1st.

Labor Users Will Meet To Organize Belle Glade Group

Policy-Making At Labor Loading Zone Is Object Of Proposed New Association

A group of Belle Glade farmers and harvesting contractors met with Mayor Harold Rubin at city hall last Tuesday night and formed a temporary organization, at the suggestion of the mayor, for the purpose of promoting the Belle Glade Farmers and Harvesters Association.

Controversial issues arising over the operation of the city-owned and operated labor loading zone has created the necessity of organized effort on the part of patrons of the loading zone, the sponsors believe.

At the meeting Monday night, which Mayor Rubin acted as chairman, Louie Kirchman was chairman, J. H. Livinston, Jr., secretary, and Sam Knight, Harold McKee and Otis Hayes committee members to solicit other users of the loading zone, who were not present, for participation in the proposed permanent organization.

The loading zone was created several years ago for the purpose of assisting farmers and harvesters in loading field workers and alleviating a traffic congestion of trucks and cars in the loading zone, which was well nigh unmanageable when these hundreds of laborers were loaded on trucks each morning. A fee of $1.00 per loading space for each of two seasons is charged by the city.

Legally, it is pointed out, the city cannot refuse a permit to any applicant, and a certain number of spaces are available on a day to day basis at $15 per day. Farmers and harvesters are able to avail themselves of this city's facilities when labor is scarce and deprive local business of their needs. It is believed that the new organization, when completed, and functioning, might be able to work out a lease agreement with the city to operate loading facilities as a private association for the benefit of the Belle Glade Area.

Advising the city of the formation of the association and its operation is being obtained from the city. A permanent organization is expected to result from the meeting at the city hall on Friday night. All users of the loading facility are urged to be present and air their views.

BRIGHT-EYED, HAPPY AND HAVING FUN—The Belle Glade PTA-sponsored Halloween carnival Saturday night was the scene of much merriment as evidenced by the group of pictures above. Upper left, an unidentified youngster is taking it all in; upper center—Charles and Stephen, 21/2-year-old twins of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Close, are giving a good imitation of Robin Hood; upper right—another unidentified fledgling gaining experience at a tender age; center left—a group about to realize a dream of every child: a ride on an honest-to-goodness fire truck; center—Norman and Eleanor, 10-year-old children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes. Norman is the scarecrow and Eleanor an "old man with a broken leg. Between them is another unidentified youngster in a eye-catching costume; lower left—L. Murray, III, with his two sons, Doug, left, and Bert, right; in Japanese costumes, flanking a happy young man whose identity is elusive; lower right—it's a good trick if you can do it, but to ring the duck's neck with hoops the duck has to cooperate and this one wasn't "sticking his neck out."

Two Former Belle Glade High School Footballers Contributing To Florida's Bid For First SEC Grid Championship

By HARRY ROBERTS
A pair of "true blue rosbars" from Chosen—Tucker Ross Winner and Billy Burke—have helped provide the spark that may carry the surprising Florida Gators to a Southeastern Conference championship, and when the coaches look at the movies of Saturday's Homecoming game they may decide the Chosen boys were worth the team's scholarships in the game alone.

The Gators were hanging on to their lead in the Southeastern Conference when Mississippi State made two threats to tie it up. Burke made two key plays in the middle of the last quarter, and Winner made two key tackles when the Gators held at their own five yard line just before the game ended.

"We like to win these Homecoming games more than anything," Coach Bob Woodruff said. "They're the game so you know how much those four tackles meant to the Gators."

Hosier, the Gators' defensive line coach, was high in his praise of the former Belle Glade high school players.

"Those two boys are true blue team men—boys that play for the team, not for the money. They're not after glory. All they want to do is play football. They're both good football players and both are good students. If Belle Glade ever comes up with any more boys like them we'll be in good luck."

Hosier said this reporter's high school coach, and, knowing Hosier, it was obvious that he means of praise for Burke and Winner came from the heart.

"He's a quiet, serious boy," Hosier said, thinking back. "I haven't gotten a dozen words out of him in three years."

"No," he laughed. "I mean down between them."

To appreciate these boys' contribution to the team, the Gators held a list of candidates to be voted on at the next meeting for officers and directors of the Gators. For further information call George West 9107 until p. m. after 2207.

Annual Barbecue Planned By Lions

Plans for the annual Lions barbecue were completed at the regular luncheon meeting Wednesday at The Bend.

Friday, November 12, is the date set for the annual event serving with complete facilities 4 p. m. to allow plenty of time prior to the Belle Glade-Fort Lauderdale football game at Memorial Field that night. The local American Legion home will be the scene of the barbecue.

Program Chairman McDonald presented a film, "Fiesta Paraiso," which was very attractive and entertaining. The film was made available through Mrs. Edwin Young, president of the Chamber of Commerce and the Puerto Rico Visitors Bureau of New York.

Methodist Church Campaign Started For Building Fund

The Board of Trustees of the Community Methodist Church were authorized at the Quarterly Conference on October 18, to borrow funds for the completion of the new church building, contingent upon the church membership first agreeing to make subscriptions as such that will permit the loan to be repaid within five years.

An intensive fund raising campaign is now under way with an individual, and in the near future face visitation of every member of the family for financial support, payable each week to the building fund. Teams who are to take part in the solicitation got off to a good start last Wednesday evening of this week with a kick off dinner at the church. It is hoped that during the next few weeks, the church will receive intensive solicitation that sufficient commitments will be made in order that the necessary loan may be negotiated and worked out on the building in order that the congregation may be able to move into the new church by Palm Sunday. Plans are to be announced at the next church service, November 14, the results of the financial campaign.

This financial program was prepared by the members of the Commission on Finance, as follows: Frank Dooley, Chairman; J. A. Ball, Jr., D. C. DeHaven, William Graber, W. S. Ingram, George L. Royal, F. Schaefer, D. M. M. Sabiston and N. T. Taylor.

H. Edw. Garrett, Pastor, is Canvass Chairman. Section Leaders are Wm. Graber, Frank Dooley and N. T. Taylor. Team Captains are: W. J. Norris, Fred C. White, Russell E. Taylor, D. C. DeHaven, and the International Park proved one of the most successful ever put on by the Gators.

Glades Vegetables Escape Damage As Frost Misses Area

Market Still Strong, 50¢ Price Of $6.50 Reported Thru Thurs.

Apprehension vanished and optimism returned to the Glades Thursday morning with the rising of the sun and the immediate melting of the frost damage to vegetable crops passed.

Growers had feared severe damage to the season's early crop, when a frost was predicted. Weather conditions were perfect for frost with clear skies and no appreciable wind, but it just didn't get cold enough.

The fall season, now in its second week, has enjoyed almost perfect weather for the past two weeks and quality of the vegetable has been very good with the market reported strong. Shipments for the first four days of this week (through Thursday) totaled about 100 cars of beans with radishes, green (football) game, and smaller quantities also being harvested by local growers.

With continued good weather a crop estimated at 75 cars per day should be reached by the end of next week.

Bean prices Wednesday ranged as high as $6.50 for top quality Valentines to as low as $4.00 per ton for the same variety, with the price generally around $5.00. Contenders for the best quality were plentiful to a high of $5.75. Prices reached a high of $5.65 for the best quality, a low of $3.25 for the poorest quality. Tendergreen ranged from $2.50 to $3.00 per hamper, depending on quality.

Heavy movements of vegetables within the next two weeks.

Our Town Makes Good in New York City

Couldn't place a new subscriber named Clark, but I found out who they were last week when they dropped in The Clerk's office.
"We're native New Yorkers," Mrs. Clark said. "All our friends here are originally from this town. My always left here a while after we moved here."

"That's why we adopted your town and to get all the news we subscribed to The Clerk. Now we have a 'home town' to talk about—and we think it's the most wonderful town there is!"

From where I sit, just about everyone thinks his own home town is best. But when you're in New York City, the right to do this "picking" thing is what really counts. Whether it's a favorite town, a favorite out of town, or even a choice of a beverage—say between beer and buttermilk, it's respecting the right to this freedom of choice that makes a good neighbor. I hope you subscribe to that!

ida pass. At the 19 yard line, Burke took over the play. On the first play he threw the whole side of the line back and the third down he was unharmed under it to make another large pileup. The ball carrier was tackled each time and the Gators took over at their own 10.

When Winne came in, at mid-field Winne grabbed at the ball and Davis, the SEC's leading ground gainer, fumbled and in a few minutes, with time running out, the Mississippi State boys were on the Florida seven yard line with a first down.

On the first play three Winne stopped the ball carrier at the line and he fell forward for two yards. On third down he grabbed quarterback Jimmy Collins for a yard loss and the day was saved when the Gators took over on the five, one down later.

Winne, six feet, four inches and weighing 212 pounds will earn his third letter this year. Burke, six feet, two inches and weighing 167, will earn his first letter. Winne was an offensive lineman his first two years at Gainesville and Burke was a defensive man.

Burke and Winne played on the great Belle Glade team of 1950 that lost just one game—a 7-6 affair that took to Fort Pierce. They were tied twice and won seven.
Two other boys from that team are also playing college football now. Al Leathers, University of Tampa's great back who transferred after starting at Florida with Burke and Winne, was in the dressing room with them Saturday when this reporter interviewed Burke and Winne. Bob Barber of Florida State was a sophomore guard on that 1950 team, on which Winne played tackle and Burke played end.

Burke and Winne are also proof that boys from Florida's small high schools can be just as important to the Gators as

If you're tired of taxes you might look up Kuwait. A top official from that country who is visiting the U. S. says his home land is practically floating in oil. Kuwait is on the shores of the Persian Gulf, and the national budget is so well oiled that there are no taxes, no poor, and hospitals and clinics are free.

No wonder old Omar Khayyam was satisfied with "a loaf of bread" a jug of wine, and thou." He knew that if he ran out of provisions he could tap a pipe into the ground and drain off a bucket of black gold. On that basis, almost any fellow could afford to be a poet. Anyway, it sure must be nice to have oil wells sprouting in your back yard among the fig trees. There's something so refined about an oil fortune.

For that refined, well-grounded appearance ladies know they get the best in cosmetics when they choose from our popular lines of Dorothy Gray, Lenthic, Yardley, Elizabeth Arden, Helen Rubenstein, Tussy, Cara Nome and Revlon.

We just heard about a fellow in Mississippi who's inventing a pencil with a built-in aspirin holder. Sounds great for the man who wants to get going ... or who has one. ### County Board Asks State-Wide Census

The county commission last week asked the Florida Cabinet to take immediate steps to conduct a state-wide census and have the task completed before the next legislative session.

Commission action came after State Sen. Russell O. Morrow appeared before the board to urge immediate steps for counting county residents in order that the information would be available for the coming legislative session.

He told the commission that a census now is "vitally important" since much of the state legislation is based on population, particularly statutes which determine county refunds of state tax money.

Sen. Morrow told the commission that state laws which provide for a state census five years after each federal census has been abolished as an economy measure.

The rapid growth of Florida now shows that the census act should not have been abolished, Sen. Morrow said, as a rapid growth now makes the last federal census far out of date.

Florida, Sen. Morrow said, is the third fastest growing state in the nation "and we can't afford to go ten years without a census."

Broward and Leon counties have already made plans to take a county-wide census and Sen. Morrow urged that Palm Beach County take the same action if a request for a state-wide census is turned down.

He estimated that the present population of Palm Beach and Broward counties is now in excess of 300,000 while the 1950 federal census shows the two counties to have less than 200,000 population.

Sen. Morrow told the commission "you cannot pass equitable legislation unless you have an accurate census."

He told the commission that he believed the state cabinet would be able to find funds for the census if someone pointed out the urgent need for such a count.

County Commissioner Paul Rardin, Canal Point, a former member of the state legislature, won the support of the commission for a resolution asking a state-wide census.

Outdoor Writer Will Receive C of A Award
RUSTIN, Oct. 30 — T. N. (Tommy) Anderson, outdoor writer, has been notified by the Florida State Chamber of Commerce that he has won the third fastest growing state in the nation "and we can't afford to go ten years without a census."

Anderson's nomination was passed on by a secret wildlife federation committee, the action being unanimous. He was elected for organizing youth conservation clubs and camps, for his fight on lake pollution, and on the commercial sale of fresh water fish.

Motorists Urged To Keep Roads Clean

TALLAHASSEE — The Florida Highway Patrol is going to urge motorists in its 1955 "Welcome to Florida" pamphlet to help keep Florida clean by refraining from dumping trash along the highways, and cites a Florida law which provides a $100 fine or 30 days imprisonment for convicted violators.

Patrol Director H. N. Kirkman wrote the State Chamber of Commerce today that the new pamphlet will contain a word of warning, along with a suggestion against dumping trash on the roadside, and that State Troopers will cooperate in a statewide enforcement campaign.

The 1957 Legislature passed the law which says specifically that it is against the law to dump trash and rubbish on the highways and "any person found guilty of violating this law shall be fined not more than $100 or be imprisoned not more than 30 days."

Director Kirkman said inclusion of the anti-litter law warning was after a request from the State Chamber Executive Vice-President Harold C. Cole of Jacksonville, whose organization has emphasized existing laws against dumping trash or the theft of highway shrubbery.

Florida Wildlife Federation to receive the 1954 wildlife conservation gold medal award, and that presentation will be made at Miami on the evening of Nov. 16 when Gov-elect LeRoy Collins delivers the annual banquet address before the State Chamber's 38th annual membership meeting.

Service Station In South Bay Robbed

J. B. Rhodes, proprietor of Rhodes Service Station, awoke Monday morning to discover that an unknown intruder had paid him a visit during the night and extracted four days receipts, approximately $800 in cash and checks from his pants pocket in the bedroom in which he and his wife slept.

Investigation showed that the thief had first tried to take out a screen over a station window, failing in this the window in the bathroom had been taken down, a drum placed under the window and entrance effected.

Since none of the family heard the person or persons there is no way of knowing whether the robbery occurred other than it was after 10:30 when the family retired and before 6 a. m., when the robbery was discovered.

Keys to the station were also taken from Mr. Rhodes pocket and a search made of the station, papers, merchandise and receipts being scattered but nothing reported missing.

The loss was investigated by Chief of Police R. C. White, Constable Buford Puermon and Ralph Clark, finger print expert on the Belle Glade Police force.

Chief White stated the appearance of the robbery was the work of one familiar with the surroundings or else a professional. The police are working on the case but Chief White stated that no suspect had been uncovered up to Monday afternoon.

Halloween Party At Osceola Center Attended By 200

A lovely spirit of cooperation among the members of Osceola's Parent Teachers group resulted in a fun, creative Halloween party for the younger children of Osceola Thursday night, October 28th.

Although at 5:00 p. m. heavy rainfall was dampening everyone's hopes for the party, by 5:30 the parade on the school lawn was underway with 100 costumed children making gaily in spite of the dampness. Each child in costume received a balloon.

Then the Cinderellas, the fairies, the fat men and women, the ghosts, devils, Indians, and princesses mingled with the rest of the crowd to take in the various concessions prepared by the different grades at school, in cooperation with the room mothers. The first and second grades sponsored a fish pond which delighted the children all evening as "good fish" continued to bite on the hooks.

The third grade had a guessing game with a banty rooster and a doll cradle as prizes. The rooster was donated by Bobby Sutton, was won by Ray Griggs for the closest guess and finally found a home with Harold Williams to whom Ray will sell the fine bird. The cradle was contributed by Janie Ott and was won by Eva Louder. Third grade also had a "Pin the Tail on the Donkey" contest. Fourth grade with the excellent cooperation from many mothers sponsored a candy, doughnut, and cookie sale. Fifth grade made a dart game which proved to be a popular source of entertainment during the evening. Sixth grade out on a Halloween play using their own back-drop and scenery by painting with chalk on muslin. Each child received a favor at the close of the evening.

The Halloween Party furnished a happy time for the children and their families, contributed to the P.T.A. fund, helped us at Osceola to realize the fine things that we can do with cooperation and teamwork.

Man's true selfhood as the spiritual image and likeness of God, ever free from sin, sickness, and suffering will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" includes the following passage from the King James Version of the Bible (Genesis 1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them."

The unchanging perfection of the man of God's creation will be brought out in passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy including the following (478:22): "When speaking of the children, not the children of men, Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you, and the Kingdom of Love reigns in the real man, showing that man in God's image is unshaken and eternal.'"

How Christian Science Heals "You Can Prove the Power of Prayer" WSWN (800 k.) Sunday 9:30 a. m.

Read Philippians 3:17-21. We are a colony of heaven. (Philippians 3:20. Moffatt.) There is a danger that the church of today may be only a spectator in this age of change. The New Testament church not only survived in a similar period, when an old order gave way to a new, but was an agency of transformation. Why?

Was it because of size? We know the New Testament church was a minority group in any community. Was it because of the saintliness of its members? True, early Christians out-thought and outlived others in their world. Yet we cannot read Paul's letters to the early churches without knowing that their members were human beings like us, sometimes weak and sinful persons.

Why, then, was the New Testament church so influential? It had great concepts of the church's mission in the world. "Ye are the body of Christ," "His broken body and His risen body." Get those ideas, and a church, under God, will always change the world. We are, indeed, a colony of heaven!

PRAYER We are grateful, O God, for the church and what she has meant to the world. May we who are her members pray for and seek to make her a redemptive movement, creating a better world. In the name of the church's Lord, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY We may have beautiful sanctuaries with inspiring services, and still be an impotent church watching the world go by. Ivan Lee Holt (Missouri)

Observance Of All Veterans Day Urged By Episcopal Vicar

Father John Clarence Petrie, vicar of St. John the Apostle Episcopal Church, Belle Glade, is urging his congregation to attend whatever public celebration is put on by the veterans organizations next Thursday, Veterans Day. He will also prepare a special sermon next Sunday at the 9 a. m. service.

At the dinner of the sixth deanery of the Episcopal diocese of South Florida held last Friday here Nov. 14-16.

A Little Crowded MIAMI—Many Florida lower grade schools are so crowded that they are having to operate in relays, and the answer is not very assuring in view of the relatively modest school construction program now under way. Executive Vice President Harold Cole would like members of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce when they meet of South Florida held last Friday here Nov. 14-16.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 7, 1954—BASED ON THE INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON FOR CHRISTIAN TEACHING

Scripture Lesson—Proverbs 14:29, 15:1-3; 16: 32; 20: 23-35 SUBJECT—THE SPLENDOR OF SELF-CONTROL—(Temperance) Prepared by Bob Lee

The very nature of us is such that it is indeed difficult to at all times have self-control regarding all things and this matter is a temperance is no exception. We eat too much, we play too much, we drink too much, we seem to never strike the happy medium. That is, most of us. Now, there are some who are able to have just that very thing that the Bible speaks of in today's lesson and without doubt it is God given. An even temperament, slow to wrath and of great understanding. Moderate in all things. He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding. He that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly. A soft answer turneth away wrath; but grievous words stir up anger. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright; but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness. The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good."

One who is wise is careful over his emotions, but the fool is not. He is quick to anger, speaking rashly and without restraint. What a different place the world would be if all of us used restraint in the things of evil. The problem of self-control certainly goes beyond the matter of drinking alcoholic beverages; although this particular thing is a matter of great concern throughout the nation and the world today. It is an age old problem, causing much concern in the domestic and foreign tongues. Our appetites and our drinking habits will continue to cause us to do just that displacing nature at its very worst rather than at its best.

We must continually look to God through Christ for guidance in all things, overcoming the evil things when we go to Him in believing prayer. Patience and long suffering are certainly fruits of the Holy Spirit. We, as human beings, do not have the power of self-control. We must have Christ in our lives, relying on the strength that the very Son of God can supply. Incidentally, this lesson does not teach that we should not have a temper. The point is to do just what we can to control our temper and emotions. We will recall that Jesus himself became very infuriated when he found those people using the house of God as a place of business rather than a place of worship. It is our duty to speak out against the things of evil and against those practices that rob the church from what God intends it to be. Again, where there is no control, there is danger. All of us need self-control. You've heard that say to another whom they see going to Church, "Say one for me, too." Well, readers, that can't be done. You must pray for yourself. It is true that we can pray for one another and for many other prayers. The Bible studying and reading that my neighbor does is not going to help me. The church going that my neighbor does is not going to enrich my life. I must study myself and by so doing, I shall reap the benefits that God has provided if I will only accept them. The temptations of life can be overcome if I sincerely turn in God.

Next week—"A Study in Values."

Clewiston's Junior team made their first touchdown in the first play of the game here Tuesday night. This was the first of two scores in the first quarter, with another in the second quarter. Belle Glade made some good score drives, but were stopped for various reasons. The Lambs were outplayed and outwitted by the Clewiston boys. At the end of the first half the score was 20-0, in favor of Clewiston. During the 3rd quarter they made 2 touchdowns and one in the fourth, with the game ended 38-0, Clewiston had some.

On the whole it was a very clean game with Belle Glade not getting a single 15-yard penalty, although Clewiston had some. The boys are working hard to prepare for the game next Tuesday night. It is the Lambs and Pahokee in Belle Glade. There was a Junior High pep rally, before the game last Tuesday.

Band News
The band members of Seacrest and Belle Glade High Schools had a good time dancing and dating Thursday night. The party was held in the band room here after the football game last Thursday. The band room was decorated with each school's colors, and a poster welcoming Seacrest. Cookies and Cokes were enjoyed by everyone. There were many multi-plication and other kinds of dances. Since almost everyone enjoys the Bunny Hop, there was plenty of that too. This dance was led by Seacrest's drum major, Bob Moore. The band is looking forward to another party of this sort on Nov. 12, after the Ft. Pierce game. The non-committed officers received their insignias last week. The commissioned officers got their insignia bars before the game, last week. They were presented by band director, John Munroe.
